The McKendrean

1985

McKendree College was founded February 20, 1828, in Lebanon, Illinois, by a group of pioneer Methodists. It was first called "Lebanon Seminary" and began under the patronage of the Illinois and Missouri Conferences of the Methodist Episcopal Church. The first principal of the Seminary was the Reverend Edward R. Ames, later the twenty-first Methodist Bishop, who, with a Miss McMurphy opened classes in two rented sheds for 72 students on November 24, 1828. In 1832, the Illinois Annual Conference alone became its sponsor.

Bishop William McKendree held such hopes for the young institution of learning that he permitted the Board of Trustees, under Peter Cartwright's presidency, to change the name to McKendree College in 1830. Later, Bishop McKendree deeded 400 acres of rich land in Shiloh Valley, Illinois, to help support the college.

The first president of the newly named college was the reverend Peter Akers, who assumed duties in September, 1833. In 1835, the College was one of four to receive the first charters granted to independent church colleges by the Illinois legislature. Of these four, only McKendree College and Illinois College in Jacksonville, survive. Peter Akers was three times president of McKendree College and received its first degree, the Doctor of Divinity.

President John Merrill obtained a second and more liberal charter for the college in 1839. The instution still operates under its provisions. Thirty-one different presidents have guided McKendree College's destiny during the intervening years.

McKendree College is the oldest college in the State of Illinois, the 97th oldest in the United States and the oldest institution of higher learning maintaining continuous ties with the United Methodist Church.

Last year's District 20 Championship team fell short of making it three years in a row for the 1984 season, as they defeated Chicago State, Eureka College, and St. Francis College, but lost to Quincy College to finish 3rd in the state. Before they had begun post-season play, they had been ranked 11th in the state. Three members of the squad, juniors Lori Junker, Barb Klingelhoefer, and Linda Parker were named to the NAIA District 20 (State of Illinois) Team, and were also voted All-American.

The 1985 McKendree Bearcats soccer team started off the season with high expectations, and they fulfilled those expactations easily. New head coach Bob Cordes brought 18 new players to McKendree this year, among them the best talent in this area. Three of those new players were All-State in high school. With only three returning players from last years squad, Cordes was able to shape almost an entirely new team, one noted for its goal-tending and the explosiveness of its offense.

The men's basketball team ended its season with a semi-final playoff game loss to St. Xavier, 53-52. They reached that game by defeating Rosary in a first round playoff game held here at McKendree. The loss to St. Xavier was a disappointing way to end a season, but it was one of accomplishment and success. During the season, the team experienced many highs and a few low points. The team finished with a record of 22-11 and saw their coach reach a well-deserved milestone in his career.

Many players contributed to this successful season. Rick Stumpe is the only loss to graduation. Rick is an aggressive player that has a "never say die" attitude. He can rip the net faster than most and his constant hustle earned him respect around the district. He averaged 18.8 points per game and will be a hard player to replace.

Roger Kingston is the defensive specialist on the team. He never scores a lot but contributes far more than what is noticeable. He is the type of player that takes an assist over possible points. When there is a pressure situation you can bet that Coach Statham will have him in the lineup. Kingston is a junior this year and so will also be back next year.

Dave Mordhorst is the junior center that had a sub-par year because of a late injury. Dave is a fine outside shooter and is quick on his feet. He is looked upon to play many roles on the team. He also plays an enforcer role in the middle. He is the team captain and is one of only two two-year starters.

Walter Rogers is a freshman guard that is a pleasant surprise for the team. When John Batson became ineligible, Walter had the task of running the team. This was a difficult situation for the freshman. He handled the pressure very well and supplied a scoring output that wasn't expected. Walter is a good player in all aspects of the game and is expected to develop into a force to be dealt with.

Rick Ross is a seasoned veteran that brought stability to a young team. He is primarily a rebounder but has had some good scoring games. He took over the starting position vacated by Mordhorst's injury. Rick is also a fine ballhandler for a big man and is a versatile player. He averaged 7.3 points per game and 7.5 rebounds.

Coach Statham and Ken Coplen . . . always planning and thinking ahead on what they could do to nail down yet another win.

Morrie Fraser has proven to be an excellent shooter and a good defensive player. His playing time increased as the season progressed.

Fraser came into games and took up some of the scoring load as he had a good offensive output late in the season. He will be looked towards next year to replace Stumpe as an outside shooting threat.

Larry Mueller, Brent Dudeck and Dave McFarland all played reserve roles on the team. These three players worked hard in practice despite getting little playing time and showed their dedication to the team.

Another valuable member of the team is Jeff Kratz Thornton, the manager. He played an important role by keeping the team ready for each game and was responsible for keeping the team laughing.

Lady Bearcats

The Lady Bearcats had quite a successful season and made it to the playoffs, only to be beat in the opening round in Chicago. They were led by scoring sensation Diane Keirn, with strong defense support coming from Karyn Hunsinger, Carol Bremer, and Janis Welsh. The Team over all had a fun year and they can't wait for the new season to begin.

Mary Frerker starting yet another fast break for the high flying Lady Bearcats.

J.V. Basketball Oh, SO CLOSE . . .

In the past few years the McKendree J.V. team was considered a pushover and an easy win for a visiting team. This past year it was changed. The team came out hot and won their first game of the season at Rend Lake College. The game was an overtime affair with just four players playing for McKendree at the end of regular play and overtime. This win sent a warning shot around the league, that McKendree would not be just another easy win. After midseason, disaster struck when four Varsity players were cut from the squad due to bad grades. The J.V. season was immediately canceled and five players from J.V. joined up with the Varsity and helped complete a winning season for the team. Walter, Morri, Larry, Brent, and Dave helped the team during practice and kept the team spirit high. Walter and Morri later went on to start a few games for the Varsity Team.

The 1985 McKendree Bearcat wrestling squad suffered through a disappointing season that found them plagued by a series of injuries. In only its second year of existence, the team returned two lettermen, Ben Lines and Barry Surber. The rest of the team was made up of seven freshmen and four others who had no previous wrestling experience. Team members are: Tom Boeckmann, Kirk Graham, Tom Johnston, Ben Lines, Jason Simmons, Allen Snyder, Barry Surber, and Scott Woods.

Who's this in a trashy situation?

Why it's Jerome Munie. Bob Barker looks on in amazement.

On Stage

It was an exceptional year for the McKendree Theater Program's third season as it featured two professional and two all-student productions. It was an especially good year for lovers of Shakespeare as Riverside Theater crafted two character scenes from some of his best loved plays; and the Chicago Shakespeare Festival brought its delightful and hilarious TWELFTH NIGHT to campus.

The first full season in years of all-McKendree productions started off with Jim Leonard Jr's moving and funny THE DIVINERS. Randy Blakely played the retarded boy with remarkable powers, and Jeff Noblin, also the theater's tech director, played the preacher who tries to help him. The cast included Jeff Edwards, Lori Lowry, Deb Pullin, Jeff Bowen, Martha Ferrell, Melissa Kaegel, Dan Kasten, Christine Jones, and Jeff Thornton. Stage manager was Tanya Wright.

Springtime brought George Bernard Shaw's bestloved comedy ARMS AND THE MAN to McKendree in a breezy and colorful production that featured Christine Jones as the proud Sergius, and Melissa Kaegel as the ambitious servant girl, Louka. Dan Kasten, Diane Zielke, Ron Lyons, Jeff Edwards, and Jeff Thornton rounded out the cast. Carol Guth was stage manager. Both student productions set attendance records and were superbly directed by David Brailow.

Students from thirteen Southern Illinois area high schools gathered on the McKendree campus for the 13th McKendree Model United Nations sessions in November and March. The sessions are the only high school Model UN gathering in Southern Illinois, and are one of the largest Model UN conferences in the nation.

Approximately 500 students from area high schools including Belleville Township High Schools East and West, Cahokia, Collinsville, Dupo, Edwardsville, Freeburg, Gibault Catholic High School, Highland, Lebanon, O'Fallon, Steeleville, and Triad.

Spring Sports

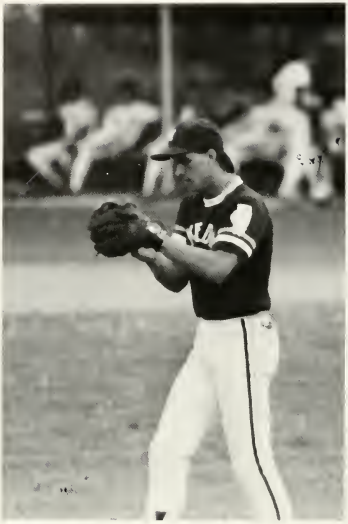
Baskerville

The 1984-85 McKendree Bearcats baseball team had a successful fall and spring season this year. Although their official schedule didn't start until early March, the team played several games in the fall to gain experience and to get used to working together as a team. A new addition to this year's squad: J.R. Potthast became a part of the coaching staff along with last year's assistant coach Keith Sanders. Team captains of this year's squad were seniors Tim Stanberry and John Schultz.

TOP: Ben Lines makes the play at first. BOTTOM: All that hard work for a foul tip!

The Billiken's steal one on McKendree player Jeff Junker.

Another base hit for Tim Stanberry.



Outfielder Kevin McFarland is a study in concentration.

That's a hit!!!

The 1985 McKendree women's softball team had one of their most successful seasons ever this year. They won both the SIU-E and Millikin tournaments. They were ranked 26th in the nation, the first time the team has been ranked nationally in McKendree's history. Head Coach Nancy Kassebaum and Assistant Coach Kathy Lanter expect to lose only the two seniors, Bonnie Droste and Janis Welch, from the team.

The 1985 McKendree golf team was in the awkward position of rebuilding almost an entire new team along with a new head coach. Athletic Director Harry Statham hired Fred Paskvan of the Locust Hills Country Club at the start of 1985. The team is expected to return all of the present team members for next year, except for Pat McDermott. One milestone accomplished by the team this year was their winning their head-to-head competition in three years.

Editor's Note

In the course of production of the McKendrean, we, the staff, have run in to our share of set backs. Even so . . . we feel that this book is a true representation of the 1984-85 school year.

As editor my path has crossed many individuals who have made my job a pleasurable experience. Among the many are Dr. Rob Ariosto, who assumed the position of advisor during our darkest hour, the staff, Deb Bethard, Craig Kassing, Peggy Rawlings, and Carol Guth, who helped in bringing this book to you. I wish to extend an extra special thanks to the following. Bill Krueger, who after serving as his managing editor of the Review, taught me how to deal with the administration. Paige Mettler, my roommate, who helped me cope with a great many problems and put up with my many ROTTEN moods. Last but certainly not least, I wish to thank Jim Thompson who has been my rock through out my editorship. He not only gave me tremendous support but also helped me through the trials and tribulation. I Love You JCT! You are one in a million.

I hope that in 10 years you, the student body, can look back at this book and remember the special year you spent at McKendree.

God Bless You!
